Britton Update

Serving with WorldVenture
April 2019

The Influence of One

Harold recently received a shout-out from a Denver area mobilizer. DG Wynn was a guest contributor in the monthly "Perspectives in Practice" email update. For the full featured article, click here.

Here's part of the write-up of her story: "In the Denver, Colorado area, she served her church and was on multiple mission committees. DG kept running into a man, Harold Britton, with the same passion for mission." Harold began a friendship with DG as he has with many mission leaders. He listens to their needs and helps them take their next step in leadership.

Harold first mentored DG at Bear Valley Church in 2013 to effectively feature their global missionaries: who they are, where they serve and why. This helped to reignite the church's mission and prayer focus which continues today. He continued to encourage her to take the Perspectives on the World Christian Movement course.

When she eventually took the course, her worldview was radically changed. Three years ago, Harold trained DG to coordinate a class at her new church, South Fellowship Church. Then she became a Perspectives instructor. "Blessed to be a blessing" is the lens through which she views all of her life choices.

And she wondered how God might use her in publishing to spur on a movement to Christ. When DG wrote a book featuring an Unreached People Group four years ago, The Prayers of Many: the Story of a Church on Mission (2016), she asked Harold to do the final edit and to write an endorsement for the book.

Two years ago Harold wrote a chapter in Pipeline: Engaging the Church in Missionary Mobilization (2018). The book was published by William Carey Publishing, where DG now serves as the Director of Publishing. Last year Pipeline was listed as the top missions book of the year by both William Carey Press and Catalyst Services. You can find this resource here.

Praise:

For DG's growth in finding where her theology, gifts, and passion meet

Gwen started back this month in the Master's program at William Carey International University (International Development). So far so good...

Harold and Gwen began training to help facilitate the Kairos course (a condensed, Perspectives-type course).

Prayer Requests:

For the equipping of the Global Partner S.E.R.V.E. Team on the topic of intercessory prayer at our home church in Colorado. These 55 team members seek to pour into the lives of Mission Hill Church's 40 international and national partners. We'll cover this topic at our next quarterly training meeting on April 28th.

For our son, Will, to continue "on mission" with God and to be used as a "light" in his workplace. For our son, Luke, to seek God's leadership in his life and to follow hard after Him.

Thank you for your generous prayer and financial support that keep us active in the work of sending workers and engaging churches!

Harold and Gwen

Your story is always going to be about advancing God's story...
When you discover how God is uniquely committed to pouring His grace into your life, you will be well on your way to discovering how He intends to pour His grace through your life.
