Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us.

— Ephesians 3:20

QUESTIONS FROM MISTER CRICKET

1. Charlotte and Zeke were bored when this story began. What excuses did they give for their boredom?
2. Have you ever been bored? Think about a specific time and share it with your parents.
3. Escaping boredom doesn't happen magically—we have a responsibility in it. What did John Cricket do to help Zeke and Charlotte escape their boredom?
4. John Cricket mentioned that one's hope and one's imagination are connected. What does that mean?
5. What happens to one's hope when one's imagination is not exercised?
6. Now, here's your assignment for the next few months, while you're waiting for Volume III of Mister Cricket to come out: Imagine what it's like to live in heaven with Jesus forever. And if you don't know how to get to heaven, why not write Mister Cricket and ask him? I'm sure he'll answer right away.
