Serving with CRU from Costa Rica

Greetings from Costa Rica! We hope and pray that you and your loved ones are doing well. In the midst of CoVid crisis God continues working in people’s lives and He allows us to continue to bring His message of love and salvation to others, not just in Costa Rica, but in other countries as well. We can do all this thanks to God’s help and thanks to the prayers and financial support of our ministry partners, like you. Here is some of what God is doing in our midst, thank you for being part of it!:

University of Costa Rica, Radio Program

Carlos was interviewed by the UCR Radio station, which is followed not only by the university staff and students but by the public in general. Carlos spoke about how to help children during this time of confinement; he shared principles for living together and staying mentally healthy. Carlos also spoke, in a very natural way, about how we need to take care of our spirit too (we are not just mind and body), and mentioned some good practices such as reading the Bible and having a personal relationship with Jesus. We shared this interview (which has been seen more than 1,300 times on FB) with the teachers and parents of our kids school and that opened doors to very good conversations.

Sharing with 46 teachers of a public school for special education

A year ago, during an evangelistic project we had at a university, we met a well-known professor who is also the principal of a special education public school. She invited Carlos to give an online talk to all of her school staff (46 teachers). Carlos spoke on how every human being needs grace and truth to grow and that the main source of grace and truth is God and a personal relationship with Jesus. The message was (to our surprise) very well received and Carlos was invited to talk again. The 46 participants indicated in the post-talk survey that the talk had been beneficial to their lives. We pray that these 46 teachers can share those principles with their students and school parents.

Serving the University of Costa Rica

Carlos is volunteering with a group of UCR psychologists (in the picture) in a program to help UCR students and professors who are facing crisis in their lives. This has been a very nice opportunity for Carlos to serve and show God’s love as well as to share his personal testimony.

Training leaders to serve and share their faith

Along with leaders of other Latin America countries and Canada, 15 professionals involved in our ministry went through this training (5 two hour sessions) where they learned tools to serve their communities by bringing the message of Jesus to those in their area of influence.

Praying God's Word in community

We meet weekly with a group of professionals to read and pray God's Word together, to pray for each other's needs, for our country and for what's going on in the world.

Providing counseling to missionaries in grief

Carlos has been helping our co-workers (missionaries in Honduras, Panamá and Ecuador) process grief as they mourn family members and friends lost due to Covid-19. Carlos has also helped them in this process of confinement providing them with tools to help others around them as well.

Discipleship

We continue meeting regularly with others to study God's Word and to share tools that will help them grow spiritually and help them help others grow spiritually as well.

Please pray for us!

Please continue praying for us, for our country and for those who God allows us to share with.

Thank you so much for your faithful prayers and support that allow us to share Jesus, serve, encourage and support others!

How can we pray for you?

In Christ's love,
