

Ministering to First Responders & Their Families

Serving Those Who Serve Us

Ministry Impact

This month has been filled with visits to the PD, sitting at roll calls, meals/coffee with Officers, processing with individuals at the FBI through life circumstances and difficulties on the job, keeping in touch with officers at other agencies, encouraging chaplains, and spending time in the patrol car. I am so grateful for all of these opportunities. Thank you for your prayers, support, and encouragement that makes this happen.

There is so much to be thankful for. As we enter this Thanksgiving week, please take time to remember all that God has blessed you with, all that He has brought you through, the relationships He has brought into your life, and the future ahead.

I have mentioned our cop Bible study before, however, this continues to be a joining us. Pray that God continues to move in amazing ways.

Our Executive Director, Kevin Shive, wrote a letter to all of you, Team Akins! In his letter, Kevin shares what an amazing year we have had. Please check it out.

We hosted a Basic Chaplain this past week with 23 in attendance. It was a very interactive and diverse group this time around. Please pray for those that were not able to attend due to Covid and other mitigating factors. We hope to hold another training this coming May and already have people interested.

RMPC shared about chaplaincy for Fire, Police, and EMS personnel at a Critical Incident Stress Management course hosted by New Raymer and Stoneham Fire Department in Brush, Colorado. It is exciting to see people get inspired by all that God is doing.

In October we launched the Rocky Mountain Fire Chaplains Website and Facebook Page. Check them out and share with others.
